

Community Involvement

Randy Jordan was named the 2018 Business Person of the Year! Congratulations, Randy!

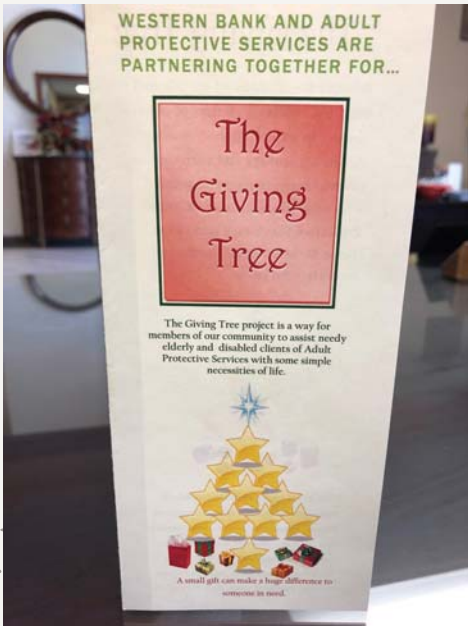

Festival of the Lights

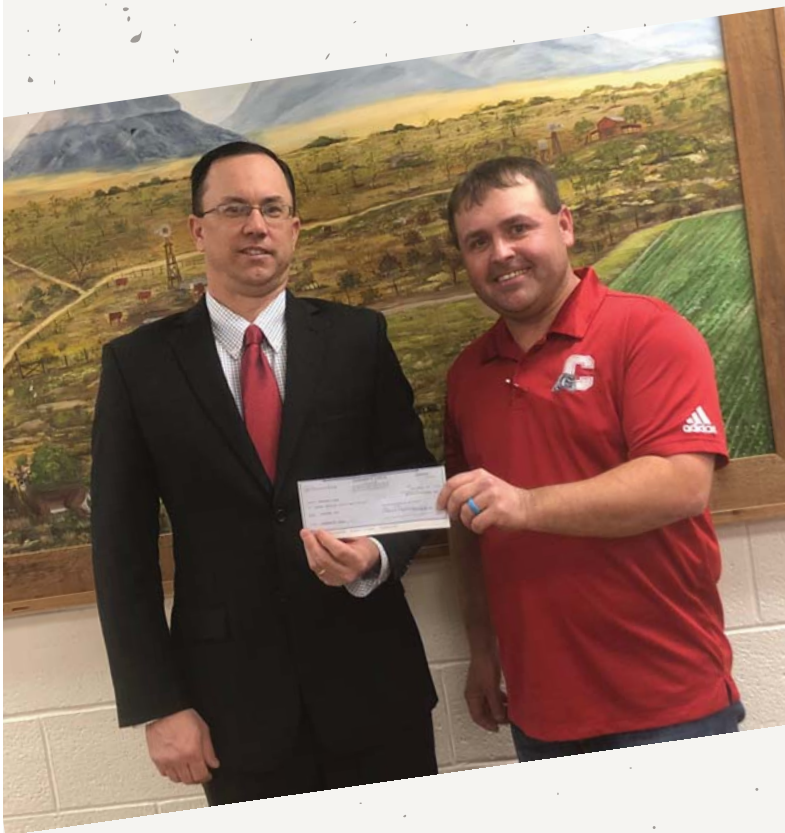

Chris Sharp gave a presentation for the Rawls College of Business Advisory Council in Lubbock.

The meeting was to discuss the Rawls Raiders Alumni Association & give an update on the progress of the group. Western Bank will be hosting a Rawls Raiders Happy Hour at the Broadway location on March 6th.

Gifts that were collected for the Adult Protective Services at the Big Spring Branch

Coahoma Community Card
(Left)

BSI ISD Community Card
(Right)

Lorraine volunteered for the Bulldog Homecoming

Jared Bailey attended Abilene's Annual Chamber Banquet

Western Bank donates gloves & beanies to Bowie Elementary children

Abilene branch handed out black-eyed peas to their customers for luck for the New Year

Abilene's Western Wednesday recipient was Taylor County Veterans Center. The center councils veterans & service men/women who come back from deployment to help them cope with returning to civilian life & also other issues like PTSD.

The Abilene branch is doing their part to "Keep Abilene Beautiful."
They picked up 8 bags of trash around the 2 blocks of their branch.
Great job!

Western Bank was a sponsor of the annual Gals, Glitz & Glamour fundraiser for Brownwood Woman's Club. Ada is a member and also works the event each year.

Brownwood branch donated 12 blankets & 8 coats to the Salvation Army during their Warm for the Winter Drive.

Connie & Jill delivering items for the Toys for Kids Campaign

Ada presenting May ISD Superintendent, Steve Howard, with proceeds from debit card spirit awards.

Shea is shown awarding Brownwood ISD High School Principal, Mitch Moore, with debit card spirit awards.

Connie made a donation to the Coreen T Smith Animal Shelter in Brownwood.

