

Community Involvement

Abilene

Abilene had a customer event at The Winery at Willow Creek. Everyone had a great time. Pictured are customers Shagu Agahi, Courtney & Bryce Bevill, Butch & Donna Schuman and granddaughter, Carrie, and Nancy Johnson (board member).

"Keep Abilene Beautiful Clean up"

Jared, who is a board member of Keep Abilene Beautiful, was one of 89 volunteers who participated in the Kirby Lake Park Cleanup in south Abilene. This event was a collaborative effort between Keep Abilene Beautiful, West Texas Science Center, and the Friends of Kirby Lake. They picked up and disposed of approximately 8,000 pounds of trash, recyclable products, fishing line, nets, tires, mattresses, and others. They worked the Kirby Lake, baseball fields, roadways, and the water ways. The Bank volunteers picked up 6 bags of trash around the block. Pictured are Annette, Liz, Mary, Esther & Jared (Anna taking pic).

Brownwood

Ada attended a Texas Bankers Association networking reception on October 22nd at the Pioneer Tap House in Brownwood. Over 20 local bankers from 6 different banks within a 45 mile radius of Brownwood attended, as well as several TBA representatives.
